FRIDAY, OCT. 25, 1902.

As the published edition appeared in the editorial columns of the Louisville Journal on Wednesday, October 23, at a point of some interest, we have the public to thank for the following:

The United States Senator, The Hon. John C. Breckinridge, has been elected to the Senate for the term of six years, to begin on March 4, 1903. He was elected by a vote of 100 to 9.

John C. Breckinridge, 1836-1902. He was born in Kentucky, and was a member of the Kentucky State Senate, and of the United States House of Representatives. He was also a member of the United States Senate for two terms.

From this it will be seen that from December 1, 1901, to the time that the first election was held, the country was in a state of confusion. The country was divided into two camps, the one for Breckinridge and the other for the opposition.

What, then, is the point of the article above? What does it contain? It is a statement of the fact that Breckinridge was elected to the Senate, and that he was elected by a vote of 100 to 9.

Now let the reader refer to the commentary for a moment. Breckinridge, who was elected to the Senate, was a member of the Kentucky State Senate, and of the United States House of Representatives.
